Geschichte Sek. II: Naher und Mittlerer Osten in Frühgeschichte, Altertum, Mittelalter und Neuzeit

Phase	Inhalt	Methode	Medium
Einstieg (10 Min.)	Wo liegt der Nahe Osten? Die SchülerInnen stimmen offen ab, welche folgenden Staaten nach ihrer Meinung zum Nahen Osten gehören: Afghanistan, Ägypten, Algerien, Bahrain, Irak, Iran, Israel, Jemen, Jordanien, Katar, Kuwait, Libanon, Libyen, Marokko, Oman, Palästina, Saudi-Arabien, Syrien, Tunesien, Türkei, V.A.E. Die Staaten werden jeweils auf einer Karte gezeigt und die Stimmen auf die Tafel geschrieben. Als Ergebnis werden mehr Stimmen für ein Zentrum (die Staaten des „Maschrik“ incl. der kleineren Staaten Irak, Israel, Jordanien, Libanon, Palästina, Syrien) und weniger Stimmen für eine Peripherie (alle anderen Staaten incl. der größeren Staaten Türkei, Iran, evtl. Saudi-Arabien und Ägypten) erwartet. Die SchülerInnen besprechen und begründen dieses Ergebnis (mit historischen, politischen oder kulturellen Kriterien).	„Abstimmung“, freies Unterrichtsgespräch	Karte (http://www.bpb.de/izpb/159482/karten), Tafel (Bei OHP oder Whiteboard können die Stimmen auf die Staaten geschrieben werden.)
Erarbeitung (25 Min.)	Was ist der Nahe Osten? Die SchülerInnen lesen den Text und bearbeiten mit ihrem jeweiligen Nachbarn die Aufgaben: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Wie haben sich die Begriffe Vorderer Orient und Naher bzw. Mittlerer Osten geschichtlich entwickelt? ▪ Was bedeuten diese Begriffe gegenwärtig (aus der Sicht des Westens und des Nahen Ostens selbst)? ▪ Wie wurden und werden sie jeweils bewertet? Erwartetes Ergebnis: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Bis zum 18. Jh. war nur das östliche Mittelmeer der Osten (lt. Orient, ar. Maschrik, dt. Morgenland). Im 19. Text der Balfour-Erklärung 1917

Foreign Office,
November 2nd, 1917.

Dear Lord Rothschild,

I have much pleasure in conveying to you, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, the following declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations which has been submitted to, and approved by, the Cabinet

His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavours to facilitate the achievement of this object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country'

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation.

A handwritten signature in ink, appearing to read "Yrs Arthur Balfour".

Verehrter Lord Rothschild,

ich bin sehr erfreut, Ihnen im Namen der Regierung Seiner Majestät die folgende Erklärung der Sympathie mit den jüdisch-zionistischen Bestrebungen übermitteln zu können, die dem Kabinett vorgelegt und gebilligt worden ist: Die Regierung Seiner Majestät betrachtet mit Wohlwollen die Errichtung einer nationalen Heimstätte für das jüdische Volk in Palästina und wird ihr Bestes tun, die Erreichung dieses Ziels zu erleichtern, wobei, wohlverstanden, nichts geschehen soll, was die bürgerlichen und religiösen Rechte der bestehenden nicht-jüdischen Gemeinschaften in Palästina oder die Rechte und den politischen Status der Juden in anderen Ländern in Frage stellen könnte. Ich wäre Ihnen dankbar, wenn Sie diese Erklärung zur Kenntnis der Zionistischen Weltorganisation bringen würden.

Ihr ergebener Arthur Balfour
